First Reading Acts 4:5-12 See Insert
In this story from the Acts of the Apostles Peter and John, having cured a crippled man, are called to account before the high Jewish council. Peter testifies that the source of their healing power is the same Jesus whom the leaders rejected. Referring to scripture, Peter speaks of the stone rejected by the builders, which is nevertheless meant to be the cornerstone of the new faith. Evidently there were a number of encounters like this in the life of the early church, but the disciples continued to heal and to preach in Jesus' name.

At the end of the reading: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Give us ears to hear God's word.

Psalm 23 Cantor, Mary Davis

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not be in want.

Second Reading 1 John 10:11-18 See Insert
In our epistle lesson we learn that the followers of Jesus are to emulate his love by laying down their lives for one another. Such love is demanding and practical, requiring believers to share what they have with those who lack. By acting in ways consistent with the kindness of God, disciples will know that they do indeed believe in Jesus the Son of God. They will know that he abides within them and they in him, and that the Spirit has been given them.

At the end of the reading: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Give us ears to hear God's word.

Prayers of The People

Gathered in the care of the Good Shepherd who gave his life for us, let us pray for the needs of our community, our church, and our world. Hear our prayers for all your people, as we pray: the Lord is our shepherd, we shall not be in want.

You know your own and your own know you, good Shepherd of the sheep: Guide the Church in gentleness and peace, that we may obey your commandment to love one another. Strengthen the shepherds who lead the church today: our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Diocesan Bishop Daniel, all Priests, Deacons and Lay Ministers, especially those who guide the work of the United Thank Offering. Be present to those working in our companion Diocese of Navajoland and especially the ministry of St. Christopher's Mission. The Lord is our shepherd; we shall not be in want.

The rejected stone has become the cornerstone for the healing of the whole world. Be present, O God, among our leaders and with those who exercise authority for the nations of the world, that they may guide us along right pathways for your Name's sake. Open our eyes to see the needs of our brothers and sisters throughout the world and then give us compassion to respond generously. The Lord is our shepherd;

we shall not be in want.

For all who are persecuted for the gospel, for all who have been martyred for their witness to the truth, for all in lonely places who rejoice in the hope of resurrection, and for the blessed company of the saints, living and dead. May we always be able to lie down in those pastures which flow beside the still waters of fellowship and reconciliation. The Lord is our shepherd;

we shall not be in want.

Hear us as we bring the prayers of our hearts to you, O Gracious One, remembering especially those on our prayer list especially: Don Harting, Tom Bray, Kathy Sheridan, Gary, Cassie Bowers, Michael Borst, Connor Munday, Billy Galloway, Janet Grashof, Laurie Grashof, Peter Schiller, Danny Finnegan, Gayle, Morgan West, Debbie Markowitz, Billie, Patricia Patton, Elizabeth and Richard, Nicole Bergenstock. I invite your petitions at this time, either silently or aloud. Hear our prayers for those who have walked through the valley of the shadow of death; grant that they may dwell in the house of the Lord forever. The Lord is our shepherd; we shall not be in want.

Reassure our hearts, O God, with the comfort of your guiding presence, that we may know that you are with us, and we will fear no evil. Strengthen us to join in the Spirit's work of leading all people into your abundant love, that goodness and mercy may follow us all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
